

The diagnosis is in!

Doctors, you came, you examined, you faxed!
Thanks for participating in the NRM Annual Checkup survey

Here's what some of you had to say:

"Good to the last drop!"

— Dr Antoinette Michael, Whitby ON

"It keeps me in touch with what is going on in medicine."

— Dr Panayiotis Frangou, Calgary AB

"A welcome addition to doctors' medical magazines."

— Dr Murtala Abdurrahman, Ajax ON

"An informative magazine to let us keep in touch with what is current in medicine in a nutshell."

— Dr Ann Huang, Burlington ON

"I love it! It's brief, well written and covers lots of topics."

— Dr Rachelle Bouffard, Victoria BC

You also gave us many insightful article suggestions

Here are some you'll find in this issue:

■ "I want to see something on tropical medicine."

— Dr Antoinette Michael, Whitby ON

See "What to tell your patients about travelling abroad" on page 25

■ "How about something on diabetes management and managing patients with multisystem problems?"

— Dr Caroline Penn, Port Moody BC

See "Wireless glucometer helps diabetics get in control" on page 35

Look for these ideas and many more in future issues:

■ "Doctors who have changed their practice in midlife. Can you look at major relocations, retraining, choosing to change the emphasis within their practice?"

— Dr Satu Repo-Hendsbee, London ON

■ "Current state of computerization of medicine.
Can you profile a hospital or MD moving towards a paperless system?"

— Dr Ritchie Strachan, Winnipeg MB

■ "How about a diagnostic quiz called 'Name that rash?'"

— Dr Andries J Muller, Biggar SK

These are your top three picks for favourite article:

1 "Conflict of interest declaration:
on the eve of extinction"
(August 30, 2004 Volume 1, No 15)

2 "Coached childbirth pushes pelvic floor muscles to the limit"
(September 15, 2004 Volume 1, No 16)

3 "Teens may be hardwired to sleep in"
(August 30, 2004 Volume 1, No 15)
